Lisbon, June 11. The 6th Instant, being his most Faithful Majesty's Birth-Day, who then completed the 54th Year of his Age, was celebrated with all Demonstrations of Joy. The Court was very numerous and brilliant at the Palace of Ajuda on that Occasion; and Don Lewis da Cunha, Secretary of State, gave a very splendid Entertainment to many of the Nobility, and to the Ministers of the Foreign Princes residing here.

On the 9th, near Half an Hour past Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, a very smart Shock of an Earthquake was felt in this City, which created such an Alarm, that many People ran out of their Houses into the Streets; but it has done no Damage.

Whitehall, June 28, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Chambers of Mr. Thomas Magson, N°. 16. And it being, from several Circumstances, suspected, that more than one Person was concerned in the above Robbery; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robbery, does hereby promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SHELBURNE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Thomas Magson does hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to the Person making such Discovery; to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders. Tho. Magson.
